

CAMPUS CONFIDENTIAL

CHUGGING ALONG

Jacko editors celebrated Keggy's 10th birthday by selling new T-shirts adorned with the unofficial mascot's mug.

SECURITY DETAIL

No bags and backpacks were allowed in Cook Auditorium when former Israeli Prime Minister Ehud Olmert spoke November 12.

SEEKING HARMONY

Alpha Delta brothers broke bread with the campus NAACP chapter to forge improved relations.

BONFIRE BLOTTER

The bad numbers from Homecoming Weekend: Three arrests, seven hospitalizations and two fights. The good numbers: Dartmouth 20, Yale 13.

WHAT'S BREWING

Two seniors have started the Dartmouth Coffee Club. "Coffee can be a really personal thing," said one of the founders.

GOOD SPORTS

Softball player Alyssa Jorgensen '17 placed first at an athletes' talent show October 9. Women's basketball won top honors in the team competition.

NEW DIGS

Construction began on Triangle House, a new 25-bed affinity house for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender students at 4 North Park St.