

"Spelling out 'change' in the shape of my favorite animal, an elephant, is a reminder that things in life shift and change."
—JENNIFER EVANS '17

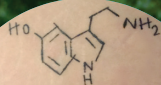

INSTA-STUDENT

"On my arm is the Hebrew letter chai, which translates to 'living.' I also have one on my shoulder that represents my Native American reservation."
—NOAH BOND '13

Thoughtful Ink

Undergrads reveal their tattoos.

"Mine is the chemical compound serotonin, linked to feelings of happiness. I got it as a 'reward' for years of coping with depression."
—KATIE BOTTA '17

à pour toi com riaient toutes les

"I got my quote from The Little Prince, 'it will be as if all the stars were laughing,' when my dad passed away. It was our favorite book."
—LAUREN HARRIS '16