

"I can spend an entire day alone at the hoop house and not once feel lonely. The o-farm has been an incredibly grounding place for me."

—KRIPA DONGOL '16

INSTA-STUDENT

"Some of my most meaningful academic moments have occurred in this place. It's a medium through which we can see more closely our impact on the natural world."

—JULIAN BONORRIS '17

Field Work

Undergrads get their hands dirty at the organic farm.

"I love the manual labor, playing in the dirt and connecting with the land. Being here is one of the best kinds of study breaks because it's beautiful and quiet."

—VIVIAN HU '16

"I have been able to dive deep into ecology, agriculture and the politics of small-scale farming, encouraged to experiment, explore and ask questions."

—KATHERINE SALAMIDO '19
