

Start Spreading the News

When the College announced last November that Phil Hanlon '77 would become Dartmouth's 18th president, the office of public affairs made sure the news appeared in New York City's Times Square. For our story about how Hanlon went from math major to the president's office in Parkhurst Hall, see page 36.

Photograph courtesy Dartmouth College